VILLAGE OF BLOOMINGBURG COUNCIL MEETING

January 20

2026

Legislation:

~Resolution: R-26-02, Contract for the new village solicitor Emerson McGinnis.

Motion: Keith, 2nd Christian, roll call, CB yes, GO absent, JF absent, MH yes, TF yes, KH yes, 4 yeas, motion carried.

~Resolution 26-03, Resolution determining to proceed to levy an additional tax in excess of the 10 mill limitations, this is a renewal levy.

Motion: Missi, 2nd Keith, roll call, CB yes, GO absent, JF absent, MH yes, TF yes, KH yes, 4 yeas, motion carried.

Clerk's Report:

~billed

~received

~Lorie informed the council that MVL (Street Lights) has gone up over $60/month. This is in the contract over the next several years. The council needs to decide if they are going to increase the assessment. We are close to not receiving enough assessment funds to cover the monthly bill.

Old Business:

~update on properties. Bobby said that Cross Street property is being sold through the landbank.

~sidewalk on Midland at the new house. Bobby said he posted the ORC on the property.

~signs are up on Midland. They are up.

~Fiscal Officer applications. One applicant. Missi asked about the pay, salary or hourly. Bobby said when it was a salary position the clerks were never here during the day to answer questions or answer phone calls that she needed to address.

~Missi asked about posting the water clerk job. Gordon called Tim and since he's out of the country he can't post the job. Keith texted Gordon during the council meeting and said that he would post the job. Very lengthy discussion. The Fiscal Officer position was advertised @ starting pay $20/hour. Nothing was discussed on the Water Clerk pay.

~Fast Lap, oil. Christian said that Cody is going to help Mark Hains get it.

~Income Tax. Lorie said that she went on the RITA website and watched videos. Lorie told council that they needed to watch the videos. RITA will do everything.

New Business:

~NONE

Executive Session:

~No further discussion.
